Since 1999, the annual Cavell Leitch New Zealand Jazz & Blues Festival has provided Christchurch with an international standard music event that has become a favourite for artists and audiences alike. The festival is known for profiling some of New Zealand's finest musicians and showcasing a selection of international artists. Artists who often work side by side, creating great music together, and enabling us to offer Christchurch a rich and varied festival programme.

The 2015 festival's international artist line-up includes Hank Marvin, James Morrison, Hetty Kate, Fantine, Mary Coughlan, TJ Johnson, Daniel Weltlinger, Brenda Earle Stokes and Nick Hollamby. Our national musicians include: Nathan Haines, Ali Harper, The Troubles, Oval Office, Kevin Field, Tom Rainey, Malcolm McNeill, Naomi Fergusson and many more.

Festival shows will be staged in a variety of venues including the newly reopened 'The Gym' at The Arts Centre. 'The Gym' will be the host venue to the Dormer Jazz Cabaret Club – with shows each night from 7pm – as well as the festival's lunchtime concert series. Charles Luney Auditorium will host Hank Marvin of The Shadows, The Bedford will host the fabulous Fantine with Oval Office, the CPIT MusicArts Doug Caldwell Auditorium has a full programme of concerts on offer while the Transitional Cathedral will provide a stunning location for four concerts featuring a variety of music from Nathan Haines, Mary Coughlan, Gypsy Swing and the Garden City Big Band tribute to one of our very best, Stu Buchanan.

Overwhelmed by the success of our Jazz Dine series, this year we're offering three separate dinners in association with The Press, Black Estate Wines and The George. We'll be matching great music with fantastic food and wine for three nights including the jazz flavours of New Orleans, New York and Europe.

The 2015 Cavell Leitch New Zealand Jazz & Blues Festival is made possible by the generosity of our sponsors, including our loyal naming partner Cavell Leitch, as well as The Press, Double Lux, Christchurch City Council, The Canterbury Community Trust, Dormer Construction, iSite, The Breeze, The Sound, The George, Wickliffe, CPIT MusicArts Black Estate and Pernod Ricard.

We also couldn't do it without you, our loyal patrons. Thank you for your support and we look forward to entertaining you this April.

Enjoy!

The sizzling sounds of swing.

Guitarist Hank Marvin has achieved legendary status the world over. From his early days with The Shadows, through to his forays into everything from rock'n roll to swing and gypsy jazz, his technical skill, precision and rhythmic integrity brings us music that invades the soul. Marvin's quartet 'Hank Marvin Gypsy Jazz' features virtuoso accordionist Nunzio Mondia, stand out rhythm guitarist Gary Taylor and guest bassist Robbie Pisano. Their debut album Django's Castle is flying high in the USA Jazz charts.

"Marvin plays it as though it's the only sound he's been perfecting his entire life. Melodically and rhythmically the tunes and performances are sophisticated and sublime."

PAUL FREEMAN
POP CULTURE CLASSICS

Don't miss the opportunity to hear this amazing ensemble and one of the world's most renowned guitarists in an intimate setting.

The CSO with JAMES MORRISON A TO Z OF JAZZ

James Morrison's critically acclaimed A to Z of Jazz is a journey through the history of jazz with a snapshot of some of its most important people and moments. Featuring music from the greats including Duke Ellington, Count Basie and Miles Davis, you'll be taken from Dixieland to Bebop, Blues to Birdland.

Besides the trumpet, this virtuoso multi-instrumentalist also plays trombone, euphonium, flugel horn, tuba, double bass and piano, sometimes at the same time! Joining Morrison for this performance is Melbourne based vocalist, Hetty Kate, a rising star on the international jazz scene, who has been described as:

"A charismatic and technically gifted vocalist whose gorgeous timbre carries echoes of Peggy Lee, June Christy and Julie London"

CHRIS MAY
ALL ABOUT JAZZ (USA) 2011

Accompanied by the Christchurch Symphony Orchestra, this will be the jazz highlight of the year.

ALI HARPER GERSHWIN SONGBOOK

Tuesday 7 April

7pm | $39
9pm | $35

George and Ira Gershwin will always be remembered as the songwriting team whose voice was synonymous with the sounds and style of the Jazz Age. Ali Harper selects her special favourites from their extensive song book including Fascinating Rhythm, S'Wonderful, I Loves You Porgy and Someone to Watch Over Me. Join this award winning songstress for a spell-binding night as she interprets the rhythm of the age through songs from musicals and films.

Ali Harper (vocals), Michael Lawrence (piano), Michael Story (bass) and Tim Sellars (drums).

"Ali Harper lights up every room she enters, owns every stage she steps upon and steals every heart that hears her sing." NEW YORK 2013

THE TROUBLES

Wednesday 8 April

7pm | $39
9pm | $35

The Troubles are one of this country's most engaging and exciting jazz bands. From the coarse to the sublime, the emotive to the absurd, their music is inventive, passionate, honest, and wholly life affirming. Led by John Rae, a drummer and composer hailing from Edinburgh, their distinctive sound comes from a mix of string quartet and jazz trio. During 2014 the band performed to sell-out crowds at the Edinburgh International Jazz and Blues Festival and in 2015 they plan to take their unmistakably Kiwi sound around the world.

NICK HOLLAMBY

ALL SINATRA

Thursday 9 April 7pm | $39
9pm | $35

Nick Hollamby is an established Australian jazz vocalist who has performed alongside ARIA award winning artists and international jazz heavyweights. He recently moved to Dunedin, to take up a position within the music department at the University of Otago, and in 2015 will head into the studio to record and release an album with Australian jazz pianist, Viv Middleton. Join Nick for an evening of classic Sinatra standards, as close as Christchurch audiences will get to hearing the voice of Ol' Blue Eyes himself!

FANTINE

THE JAZZ

Friday 10 April 7pm | $39
9pm | $35

Fantine is a unique talent with a musical style, described as a fusion of indie and electro soul, reflecting her cultural diversity, Russian and Dominican. She has graced stages as support for the likes of Dave Stewart of the Eurythmics, Stevie Nicks and Erykah Badu and performed with Russian jazz saxophonist Igor Butman and his 16 piece Moscow Jazz Orchestra. Her breathtaking debut album, I am Fantine, was produced by Emilio and Gloria Estefan.

For her first Christchurch performance, she sings jazz standards accompanied by Richard Pickard (bass) and Kevin Field (piano).

MARY COUGHLAN

MUSICAL GOLD

Saturday 11 April 7pm | $39
9pm | $35

The special connections Mary Coughlan has with Christchurch have resulted in her choosing the city as the place to premiere her new CD Alchemists Gold. Working with Erik Visser, her longtime musical collaborator, and songwriters Antoinette Hensey (The Beach) and Mark Nevin (Like a Leaf), she recorded the CD in Ireland and will release it in March with the first live performance here in April. Don't miss this opportunity to hear first-hand the stories behind the songs as this queen of jazz and blues lays her soul bare.

Mary Coughlan (vocals), Mike Story (bass), Harry Harrison (guitar) and Tom Rainey (keyboards)

SWING 42

WITH SPECIAL GUEST DANIEL WELTLINGER

Tuesday 7 April

7:30pm | $35

Swing 42 are one of New Zealand's most exciting and enduring gypsy-swing groups. Over the past decade they have become well known for their high energy swing dancing music and concerts. They are joined by Daniel Weltlinger, the Sydney-born/Berlin based violinist who is highly acclaimed for his distinctive sound and improvisational approach in gypsy-swing and other genres. Daniel has performed and recorded with a host of renowned artists and ensembles including German-gypsy guitar legend Lulo Reinhardt and Argentinian bandoneonist Joaquín Amenabar. This concert will feature compositions by Django Reinhardt as well as jazz and Latin standards plus original material from Daniel's new CD.

Daniel Weltlinger (violin), Reuben Derrick (clarinet), Bob Heinz, Burke Goff and Keith Petch (acoustic guitars) and Michael Kime (double bass).

NATHAN HAINES

Thursday 9 April

7:30pm | $39

New Zealand music icon Nathan Haines presents his latest album, 5 A Day, live with a six piece band. UK vocalist Kevin Mark Trail will join Nathan's brother Joel on guitar alongside a hand-picked band of some of New Zealand's finest musicians. Based in the UK for the last 20 years, Nathan has ten solo albums to his name, two of those certified Gold in New Zealand. As a producer and musician, Nathan defies categorisation and his live shows mix elements of improvised jazz, soul, and electronic dance music into one heady mix. Recorded in 2014, his latest album is a return to Nathan's hip-hop and soul roots, blended with his trademark jazz harmony and distinctive saxophone playing.

Nathan Haines (vocals, sax/flute), Joel Haines (guitar), Kevin Mark Trail (vocals), Marika Hodgson (bass), Mickey Ututaonga (drums) and Michal Martyniuk (keyboards).

MARY COUGHLAN

THE WHOLE AFFAIR

---

Friday 10 April 7:30pm | $39

Over 25 years of an extraordinary career performing and recording, Mary Coughlan has drawn from her legendary heroes; Billie Holliday, Peggy Lee, Van Morrison and Edith Piaf. When she puts her own interpretation on their soulful wails, husky flirtations, teary outpourings or defiant chanteusery, she makes every song her own without any doubt. In this concert, singing the best from her many albums, including Ancient Rain, Love Will Tear Us Apart and God Bless the Child, she inhabits every song from jazz ditties to deep blues showing why she is known as Irish musical royalty. The Whole Affair is just that - the very best of Mary Coughlan.

GARDEN CITY BIG BAND

TRIBUTE TO STU BUCHANAN

---

Sunday 12 April 1:30pm | $15

The Garden City Big Band has been playing around Christchurch for over 20 years. The 17 piece band is made up of some of the best local musicians and vocalists performing everything from classic swing and dance music from the Big Band Era through to contemporary big band sounds. In this tribute to Stu Buchanan, who was the musical director and driving force behind the band until recently, they will play a special selection of his original compositions including tunes such as Urban Marae and The Octagon Awaits You.

Black Estate North Canterbury

We love music. We play a lot of it at our Tasting Room & Eatery which sits above the beautiful Black Estate Vineyard. Family owned, we craft wines to express each of our hillside vineyards. Enjoy our wines at Black Estate with local and seasonal produce, good music and good people.
